Sumo Vase, Petit - Bone White

Product Description

The Sumo vase celebrates the human body. As a reference to the Japanese sport Sumo, all vases are voluminous in size and shape, resting on top of narrow pointed legs.

The Sumo Vase, petit, has a traditional narrow vase opening. Its design contrasts familiar vase shapes with artistic and abstract details, inviting us to reconsider our perceptions of what a vase can be.

The Sumo Vase makes a bold sculptural statement, perfect for display on sideboards, console tables, or open shelving. Designed as a standalone artistic object, the Sumo Vase also forms a cohesive family when grouped with other variations and sizes.

Each Sumo Vase is a hand-glazed, natural creation, resulting in a textured and unique surface with subtle variations in colour.

Designer Description

Tommy Hyldahl and Kristian Sofus Hansen intertwine their distinct sensibilities to create designs where storytelling, materiality, and timeless form meet in quiet harmony.

With a background in fashion, Tommy brings an intuitive eye for trends, colors, and textures. His process is one of layering histories, blending details and references from past design periods and reimagining them into something fresh and contemporary. Each collection unfolds as a narrative, evolving from concept to creation, with every element contributing to a greater story.

Kristian, who has lived and studied in Japan, seeks to unite Japanese aesthetics with Danish design, creating a characteristic twist on simplicity itself. His work is defined by the search for subtle, original details that elevate each piece with a unique signature. Drawing inspiration from art and sculpture, his creative process unfolds in new and exciting ways, always striving to craft designs that are both functional and timeless.

Together, they craft design that transcends time, poetic yet practical, expressive yet enduring.

Sumo Vase, Petit - Bone White

Family Description Text

The Sumo collection celebrates the body, grand, voluminous, and full of presence, yet delicately balanced on slender legs. Inspired by the Japanese sport of Sumo, the vases embody strength paired with grace, mass held in harmony with poise.

Each piece opens in its own way. Some with the narrow mouth of tradition, others with doubled or deeply carved forms that reveal a more sculptural character. These variations shift the familiar into the unexpected, asking us to reconsider what a vase can be.

The collection blurs the boundary between function and expression. More than vessels, the vases become objects of reflection, artistic gestures shaped into volume.

Individually, each vase stands as a singular presence, like a figure in quiet solitude. Together, they form a family of forms, united yet diverse, celebrating contrast, balance, and the timeless beauty of the human body.

Color Description

Hand-painted in a clean, bone white, this shade combines purity with subtle warmth. Its quiet brightness brings clarity and softness, while brush stroke variations create delicate movement, making each piece distinct and full of character.

Maintenance Guide Description

Our hand-painted ceramic pieces are crafted as decorative objects, designed to age gracefully when cared for with gentleness.

The outer surface of our pieces is hand-painted and should be treated with the same reverence dust lightly with a soft, dry cloth, allowing the painted character to remain untouched. Water, harsh cleaners, or abrasives should never meet this surface, as they can disturb its delicate finish.

Vases are sealed within and may hold water for fresh flowers. Clean their interiors gently with lukewarm water, then dry carefully, taking care that no moisture touches the painted exterior.

To preserve their vibrancy, keep each piece away from prolonged sunlight and sudden shifts in temperature. With such mindful care, every ceramic piece will hold its artistry, warmth, and timeless presence for years to come.

Materials Description

Ceramic is one of the oldest and most enduring materials, celebrated for its strength, versatility, and timeless beauty. Shaped from natural clay and fired at high temperatures, it achieves a density and durability that make it ideal for both functional and decorative use. Its smooth surface provides the perfect canvas for craftsmanship.

Our ceramic is elevated through hand painting, where layers of pigment are carefully applied by skilled artisans. This process creates subtle variations in tone, texture, and detail, ensuring that no two pieces are ever alike. The result is a material that combines resilience with individuality practical enough for everyday use, yet refined enough to stand as an object of art.

Hand-painted ceramic embodies the harmony of nature, craft, and time: a surface that carries both the permanence of fired clay and the soulful presence of the human hand.
